

Growing Healthy Habits?

NutriDyn®

Nutritional Support for Children's Health*

A child's brain and immune system are continuously developing and growing as they age, making healthy nutritional choices key to supporting overall health and well-being.* The nutrients in TonicSea Liquid Multi Pro and Suppys Probiotic Liquid are formulated to support the brain and immune system as children grow.*

- Are you looking for a tasty liquid supplement your children will actually enjoy?*
- Are your children getting all the necessary nutrients needed to support optimal brain development and healthy immune systems?*

TonicSea Liquid Multi Pro

TonicSea Liquid Multi Pro is a complete nutritional supplement for supporting children's overall health and well-being as they grow and mature.* A comprehensive mix of key vitamins, minerals, and other nutrients needed for optimal nervous system function, brain development, and healthy DNA provides support for your healthy child.*

Suppys Probiotic Liquid

A strong immune system is critical for supporting the development of young bodies. Suppys Probiotic Liquid contains "friendly" probiotic bacteria and other microbes that help the body absorb nutrients and maintain smooth digestion while supporting the growth and development of healthy children.* Probiotics can restore and rebalance children's gut microbiome, strengthening their immune systems in various ways.*
