Nutritional Support for Healthy Body Composition*

A new year is a great time to reset your goals and begin working on attaining the healthy body composition you've been hoping for. But there's no need to tackle it on your own! This year, try Neuro Balance and Dynamic Slender Drink. These nutritional products are packed with high-quality, whole-food ingredients that provide vitamins and minerals, along with other ingredients specifically formulated to assist you as you work to achieve a healthy body composition.*

- Are you looking for metabolism support for healthy body composition?*
- Would you like to assist the body's natural ability to support healthy appetite and energy production through key appetite-regulating neurotransmitters?*

Dynamic Slender Drink

Each scoop of Dynamic Slender Drink helps support a healthy appetite and the body's natural ability to burn fat with the assistance of L-carnitine, chromium picolinate, and African mango powder.* Experience the comprehensive nutritional power of this delicious drink, whose potent blend of whole food ingredients, fiber, and antioxidants can also help support satiety and energy.*

Neuro Balance

Neuro Balance contains key ingredients that support healthy levels of the appetite-regulating neurotransmitters dopamine and serotonin. These neurotransmitters can emulate similar feelings of pleasure and reward that the brain experiences from eating without requiring additional caloric intake.* Therefore, Neuro Balance may help support a healthy appetite and mood.*
